Recommendation Letter

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Mr. Esa whom I have known for the last 4 years. I have taught him several courses when he did his Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) at Khurasan University.

Mr. Esa is an outstanding person. He was a great student, keen to learn, willing to adapt, and able to implement his knowledge. He completed his degree with an excellent GPA which indicates his dedication and commitment to study.

Mr. Esa has a notable team building, membership, and leadership skills.

He is fluent in English and can bring a unique viewpoint, combined with an awareness and familiarity with the international world. He displays impressive logical thinking abilities and intellectual curiosity. He was always an active participant in seminars and other faculty events who listened eagerly and never hesitated to raise questions.

Besides teaching several subjects to their class, I was his research projects' supervisor. He demonstrated tremendous efforts and growth throughout the years and brought great energy to the class. He has a positive attitude in pursuing his objectives to continuously improve and learn new knowledge and skills.

In summary, I found him a hardworking, committed, and ambitious person. I am confident that he will continue to display the same commitment and diligence in his master's degree program. Therefore, I recommend him to the study program at your respected university.
