Statement of Purpose

My name is Md Rakib Hossain, and I am from Dhaka, Bangladesh. I have completed my Diploma in Business Management from National Youth and Technical Training Center. I have applied for the program BA (Hons) in Business Management at Niels Brock Copenhagen Business College. I am eager to pursue this program as it offers a robust curriculum that aligns with my career aspirations, particularly in the context of Bangladesh's rapidly growing business environment.

Bangladesh is experiencing significant economic growth, and the demand for skilled business professionals is on the rise. Upon completing my degree, I plan to return to Bangladesh and apply the knowledge and skills gained from this program to contribute to the business sector in my country. Specifically, I aim to work in management positions within leading multinational companies, such as Grameenphone, Unilever Bangladesh, and BRAC. These organizations are not only leaders in their respective industries but also play a pivotal role in driving economic progress in Bangladesh.

At Grameenphone, for example, I envision myself contributing to the strategic management team, focusing on innovative business solutions and customer relationship management. The telecommunications sector in Bangladesh is highly competitive, and I believe that my expertise in business management will enable me to contribute to maintaining and enhancing Grameenphone's market leadership.

Similarly, at Unilever Bangladesh, I see myself taking on a role in brand management or marketing. Unilever's global reach and strong local presence make it an ideal platform for implementing global best practices in marketing, while also tailoring them to the unique needs of the Bangladeshi market.

Finally, BRAC, as one of the world's largest NGOs, offers opportunities in social enterprise management. I am particularly interested in working with BRAC's business ventures that combine profit with social impact. I believe that my training in business management will equip me to manage these dual objectives effectively.

In conclusion, the BA (Hons) in Business Management program at Niels Brock Copenhagen Business College is the ideal platform for me to build a solid foundation in business management. I am confident that the knowledge and experience I gain will enable me to make meaningful contributions to the business landscape in Bangladesh upon my return.
